

Board of Funeral Services Announces License Revocation

The Delaware Board of Funeral Services has ordered the revocation of the funeral service license of Deborah E. Harris-Nock of Bridgeville, Delaware, following determination that Ms. Harris-Nock violated Delaware law.

In May 2015, during which time her license was already suspended, Ms. Harris-Nock was arrested and pled guilty to failing to return pre-need funeral expenses which were paid to her. As a result, the Board of Funeral Services voted to terminate the five-year suspension of her Funeral Director license and revoke the license. The Board's ruling also directs Ms. Harris-Nock to make an accounting to the Board of all pre-need funeral funds paid to her or Deborah E. Harris-Nock Funeral Services within 30 days, and pay a $500.00 fine to the State of Delaware.

A copy of the signed public order suspending the license of Deborah E. Harris-Nock can also be viewed here.